

SEPTEMBER PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SEMINAR

Where's the Money At? Projects With Readily Available Financing

You have almost closed the deal and your client is ready to move forward with the project, but one hurdle remains...financing. Many financing programs exist with money available for home remodeling (not just for those with low incomes!), but you must know where to look. To help position your business for success we have assembled a panel experienced in financing to share where money is available, how much, and for what types of projects. If you are tired of remodels getting held up or falling through because your clients can't get financing, this is the seminar for you.

The Panel Includes:

Anita Olson - U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development
Shawn Huckleby - Land Bank
Mike Haley - Minnesota Housing Finance Agency
Stacey Carol Quinn, 1st Trust Mortgage
Kate Wilson - Fairway Independent Mortgage
